The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

To Lord NORTH.

MY LORD,

I HAVE waited, with a degree of impatience, natural to a man who wiſhes well to his country, for your Lordſhip's miniſterial interpoſition in behalf of an injured Princeſs of England, the Queen Conſort of Denmark.

As I have ſome opportunity of being acquainted with the diſpoſition of Lord North, it is, I candidly confeſs, with regret that I reſume the taſk of cenſuring a man, who has, at leaſt, this negative virtue, that he wants the will to do a ſignal miſchief to the ſtate. I deſire, however, to be well underſtood: I intend no compliment to your Lordſhip's heart, I am yet to learn that it merits any. If, therefore, our Prime Miniſter is not anxiouſly buſied in adopting meaſures, and purſuing ſchemes, to plunge this country into irretrievable ruin, we may thank the daſtardly puſillanimity of his nature; we may rejoice at his weakneſs, as by that alone our ſafety is inſured, and we ought to exult in the ſuperintending care of Providence, which hath dealt out its gifts to Lord North with ſo ſparing an hand, that he does not poſſeſs a ſingle talent, neceſſary to render him a formidable adverſary to public virtue.

There is, however, a certain dignity in office, which ever will have weight with the vulgar. Your brother, the Biſhop, my Lord, ſees this truth daily verified within the precincts of his own dioceſe; and it cannot be conſtrued into an ill-natured reflection to ſay, that there are few families in Great-Britain more indebted for conſequence to the drapery of externals than the preſent iſſue of the Right Honourable Lord G----. With your proceedings in office, therefore, I am at variance; the man is too contemptible for the notice of JUNIUS.

The late revolution in Denmark, my Lord, will produce, in all human probability, an entire alteration in the whole ſyſtem of Europe. Your neutrality during that dark, and, as you have managed matters, myſterious tranſaction, is culpaple in the extreme: I want words wherewith to delineate the abſurdity of your conduct; the occaſion calls for a ſpecies of envenomed ſatire mortals may conceive, but which, to Lord North's unſpeakable comfort, they never can attain. My efforts, however, are at the ſervice of my country; the times demand them. There was a period when it was neceſſary and expedient that one man ſhould die for the people, and the whole nation periſh not. There is at preſent a political neceſſity for a ſacrifice; and it ſhall not be the fault of JUNIUS, if Lord North is permitted to eſcape, without gracing the triumph, as the moſt diſtinguiſhed victim.

The ſituation of the kingdom of Denmark is ſuch, that its very exiſtence depends upon cultivating a laſting and firm friendſhip with the maritime powers of Europe. Beſides the ties of intereſt, and of treaties, there are other political motives which ever would incline Great-Britain to ſupport, protect, and defend the Danes, againſt any combination which might be entered into for their deſtruction; but at the ſame time that we ſhould ſnatch an handful of people from impending ruin, though we might condeſcend to interpoſe in their behalf, if their ſituation called aloud for pity and compaſſion, is this, in the name of goodneſs and common ſenſe, any thing like a reaſon why we ſhould tamely bear their ignominious inſults, or ſuffer the diſgrace they have caſt upon the Engliſh nation to paſs uncenſured or unchaſtiſed? I ſay, the Engliſh nation; becauſe, as for our Miniſters, the term diſgrace, when applied to them, loſes altogether its poignancy, and the moſt ſuperlative contempt becomes the higheſt compliment you can poſſibly pay to their daſtardly meaſures.

An inſignificant northern Potentate is honoured by a matrimonial alliance with the King of England's ſiſter. A confuſed rumour prevails, that ſhe has been falſe to his bed; the tale ſpreads; a particular man is pointed at as the object of her licentious affections: Our hopeful Miniſtry are, however, quite ſilent; diſpatches, indeed, are ſent off to Copenhagen, but the contents of thoſe diſpatches are ſo profound a ſecret, that with me it almoſt amounts to a queſtion, whether you yourſelf know any thing of the matter. The Duke of Cumberland can keep a ſecret. Lord ------, therefore, has entruſted him with a moſt precious one. You, my worthy premier, have a ſtrong propenſity to loquacity, on which account it might be prudent therefore, in the court, not to place too great a confidence in a man, who loves ſpeaking ſo much, that he will talk nonſenſe for hours, rather than be ſilent even on a ſubject which he does not underſtand. For a different reaſon, Lord S-------, perhaps, can develope the miniſterial proceedings with regard to Denmark; he is a man of tried veracity, his lips are ſealed, and he ſeldom opens his mouth to any purpoſe, unleſs when he is about to betray the cauſe of ſome perſon weak enough to be his friend.

As I am not one of the cabal, I pretend not to dive into the motives for this cautious ſecrecy: I dare be anſwerable they are of the extraordinary kind; but that, conſidered in a political light, your Lordſhip's whole procedure, with regard to Denmark, is abſurd, and, with reſpect to the public, highly criminal. This is a propoſition to which every independant man of ſenſe, throughout the kingdom, muſt readily aſſent. In private life the honour of a ſiſter is deemed an affair of infinite conſequence to a brother. A man of ſentiment is anxious to convince his friends and neighbours, that the breath of ſlander hath traduced her virtue; and he ſeizes, with avidity, every alleviating circumſtance that can contribute to extenuate her offence, or demonſtrate her innocence, beyond the poſſibility of cavil.

Is our pious Monarch caſt in a different mould from one of his people? Or is he taught to believe, that the opinion of his ſubjects has no manner of relation to his own felicity? Are you, my Lord, quite void of feeling? Have you no warm blood that flows around your heart, that gives your frame a thrilling ſoft ſenſation, and makes your boſom glow with affections ornamental to man as a ſocial creature? For ſhame, my Lord, however wrong you act, you muſt know better; you muſt be conſcious that the people have a right to be informed of every tranſaction which concerns the welfare of the ſtate. They are part of a mighty empire, which flouriſhes only as their happineſs is promoted; they have a kind of claim in every perſon belonging to the Royal lineage. How then can they peaceably remain neuter, and ſee their Princeſs impriſoned by a banditti of northern Vandals? With what crime is ſhe charged? What are the proofs of her guilt? A revolution, brought about by the artifices of an intriguing woman, is no new thing in Denmark; the very ſuperſtructure of the Daniſh Monarchy is raiſed upon ſuch a foundation. Margaret, in right of her ſon Olaus VI. aſſumed the reins of government in that kingdom; but not content with her juſt portion of power, ſhe formed a ſcheme to depoſe Albert, the lawful King of Sweden: Succeeding in her ſtratagems, ſhe condemned him to perpetual Impriſonment, and thus obtained the Sovereignty of Sweden alſo.

There is a barbarous ferocity which ſtill clings to the inhabitants of the north, and renders their government ſubject to perpetual convulſions; but the Danes, I fancy, will be found the only people, in our times, who have dared to proceed to extremities that alarm all Europe; nay, dared to impriſon an Engliſh Princeſs, without giving even the ſhadow of a public reaſon for their conduct.

The Empreſs of Ruſſia, on a ſomewhat ſimilar occaſion, was politeneſs itſelf. When ſhe condeſcended to diſpatch her huſband, ſhe cauſed a manifeſto to be publiſhed, wherein ſhe juſtified her conduct to God, her conſcience, and the world. The preſent Machiavelian Dowager Julia may ſend the young Queen's ſoul to Heaven in a night, and, through the ſhameful remiſſneſs of you, Lord North, as Prime Miniſter of this unhappy country, the public may remain ignorant of every circumſtance relative to the murder. Be not, however, deceived; the blood of our Sovereign's ſiſter ſhall not be ſuffered to cry in vain for vengeance; it ſhall be heard, it ſhall be revenged; and, what is ſtill more, it ſhall beſprinkle Lord North, and thus affix a ſtigma upon his forehead, which ſhall make him wander, like another Cain, accurſed through the world.

Is it thus a Cecil, thus a Burleigh, thus a Walſingham, would have acted in the days of the protectorate? Would Cromwell have permitted ſuch an indignity to have paſſed unnoticed? That illuſtrious character would have diſpatched a Blake, with all imaginable ſpeed, to ſcour the ſeas, and chaſtiſe the inſolence of theſe northern, uncivilized freebooters, had they preſumed even to impriſon a common Engliſh ſubject, much leſs an Engliſh Princeſs; and, as an hoſtage for her liberty and her life, he would have confined the Daniſh Ambaſſador until an expreſs arrived, proclaiming her releaſe.

With the generality of perſons, example has a moſt powerful effect. You, Lord North, ſoar above the common herd; neither precept nor example can touch your ſoul, or work a reformation in your conduct; you are proof againſt conviction, and, when public or private virtue is in queſtion, you have nothing of humanity about you. Contraſts, however, like pictures well-diſpoſed, form that agreeable diverſity of light and ſhade, which conveys pleaſure and inſtruction to the moſt indifferent ſpectator. When, therefore, I mention Lord Chatham's name, there is no neceſſity for a comment to elucidate my meaning; his bold, his penetrating, his powerful genius, reſcued this nation from deſpair and ruin, when an epidemic languor ſeized our frame. He, like ſome demi-god, revived our drooping ſpirits; you, my Lord, have again plunged us into all the gloomy horrors of deſpondency. He,--but I deſiſt; when the crawling emmet, or the groveling worm, ſhall claim a ſuperiority over mankind, then, and not until then, will I confeſs, that this is the faineſt ſimilitude between the Earl of Chatham and the man commonly called Lord North.

I anticipate the jargon of your party; I know the ſteps taken, and the artifices practiſed to depreciate a man in the eſtimation of the world, the force of whoſe abilities aſtoniſhed, and kept, for a ſeries of years, all Europe in ſubjection. Continental connections, millions expended, and Engliſh blood ſpilt in Germany; theſe are ſtale, theſe are backneyed to pieces. I grant, indeed, there is verſatility in the man; I grant he has his flights; but they are ſo many daring excellencies. He is not merely a meteor in the political ſky, he is a conſtellation of a ſuperior order, which ſheds its benign influence on this our lower world, infuſes a genial vivifying heat into our atmoſphere, and thus contributes to exhilerate our ſpecies, and enhance the felicity of human nature.

Theſe praiſes are not calculated to obtain applauſes from the giddy multitude; they are not beſtowed, becauſe they may happen to fall in with the current of the times; they are not deſigned to render you, my Lord, leſs beloved, or more deteſted, than at preſent, ſince that is a taſk beyond even the pen of Junius to accompliſh; but they flow with an honeſt hearted ſincerity from my inmoſt ſoul; and, was it poſſible to conceive, that this paper ſhould outlive the other trifles of the day, it would be my utmoſt ambition to have it conſidered as a monumental tribute of gratitude, juſtly due to the truly illuſtrious Earl of Chatham, for the many diſtinguiſhed, ſignal, and important ſervices he hath performed for this my native country.

JUNIUS.

By a MASTSHIP, arrived at Caſco-Bay from England, we have the following Intelligence.

HAMBURGH, April 10.

WE have a report here, that when the Commiſſaries waited on the Queen of Denmark, at the Caſtle of Kronenburgh, the 31ſt of March, her Majeſty ſpoke to them as follows: "If you are come to pay your reſpects to me, I admit you, but if you come with any other intentions, I ſhall anſwer nothing. You have my declaration ſigned by my own hand; I have nothing farther to ſay to you. Adieu." However probable the above may be, all reports from Copenhagen muſt be received with great caution.---Her Majeſty is entirely recovered from the cholic, with which ſhe was attacked ſome days ſince.

Letters from Riga, dated the 24th ult. adviſe, that 30,000 Ruſſians, commanded by General Elmpt, the Count de Tottleben, General Rebinder, the Prince of Iſenbourg, and the Prince of Anhalt Bernbourg, have paſſed by that place, with a train of large artillery, directing their march towards Poland.

LONDON.

April 21. A Correſpondent deſires us to caution the public, againſt giving any credit to the reports now circulating relative to the affairs of Denmark. It is certain, that none of his Majeſty's ſervants, even thoſe who approach neareſt his perſon, and enjoy his confidence, know any thing about the young Queen, or the proceedings going on againſt her: However, it is generally ſaid, by thoſe who are moſt capable of gueſſing, that ſhe will never come to England; nay, they even make it a doubt, whether the whole affair will ever be publiſhed to the world.

The following are the names of the captains and ſhips now fitting out to ſail to the Baltic, and of which Lord Howe is to have the command.

FRIGATES,
Glory, Thames, and Southampton.
FIRESHIP, Strombolo.
BOMBS, Carcaſs, and Racehorſe.

The giving a regiment to Sir Robert Murray Keith, contrary to all the military rules, hath excited a general diſcontent in the army, who are all injured; but thoſe gentlemen who are neareſt in pretenſions to regiments, are moſt exaſperated.

All hopes of a treaty of peace between the Ruſſians and the Porte have vaniſhed, for the preſent; and, therefore, a war in the Eaſt of Europe is apprehended. The Courts of St. Peterſburgh and Vienna, long hoſtile to one another, are now reconciled, from their common averſion to the ceſſion of Poliſh Pruſſia to the Houſe of Brandenburgh.

An expreſs arrived at Lord Rochford's Office on Tueſday laſt from Paris, which brought the Arret of the French King, for the payment of all the Canada bills, the property of Britiſh ſubjects.

We are informed, that a rendezvous houſe is opened in Wapping, for inliſting ſeamen to man the fleet deſtined for the Baltic.

It is thought the Court of Peterſburgh are meditating a blow that will ſhortly aſtoniſh all Europe; no leſs, it is ſaid, than the ſiege and reduction of Conſtantinople itſelf; which enterprize, vaſt as it may at firſt appear, will be found leſs difficult, eſpecially if we reflect, how greatly the Turkiſh ſtrength is impaired and divided by inteſtine diviſions, and civil wars. Certain it is, ſuch an univerſal panic prevails in the Divan, as enfeebles their reſolutions, and perplexes their councils.

A rumour prevails in many knowing places about town, that the Grand Signor has, for ſome time, had a promiſe, which he can rely upon, from ſome power, which is not yet made public, of joining him this ſummer, which is the only reaſon of his backwardneſs in coming to an accommodation with the Ruſſians. In all probability, by next Chriſtmas, all Europe will be involved in war.

Falmouth, April 16. Arrived the Aldborough, Paddock, from South-Carolina, for Cowes.

April 19. At Dover, Charlotte, Roach, from Rhode-Iſland.

Edinburgh, April 15. By an Officer, who left Belfaſt laſt Wedneſday, we learn, that the rioters are now moſtly diſperſed: Near three hundred of them have been apprehended, and are in different priſons, in order to be tried. This gentleman alſo affirms, that there was no engagement betwixt the army and the rioters on the 23d of March (as was given out) or any other time; and by the prudent management of General Giſborne, all is expected to be quiet very ſoon.

The public Prints alſo contain Accounts of the Scarcity of Proviſions in many Parts of England; the Poor being in great Diſtreſs for the Means of Subſiſtence.---At Deal it is ſaid, that even the Game which uſed to be brought from France and Flanders, is entirely ſtopped, as the Inhabitants of thoſe Countries are alſo in great Want.---At Northampton, a hind Quarter of Mutton has not been to be purchaſed for ſome Months paſt, they being all ſent to London.--In a ſmall Town within ten Miles of London, all the Sheeps Plucks are bought up by a Gentleman for his Cats, and a Lady for her Dogs, ſo that the Poor of that Place cannot get ſo much as a Bit of Sheep's Liver or Lights; much leſs will theſe humane People ſuffer their Animals to be defrauded of their Hearts. At Sunderland, ſeveral Gentlemen made a Viſitation to the different Diſtricts of that Town: In proſecuting this Work, they became Witneſſes of ſuch Scenes of human Woe as can ſcarcely be ſuppoſed to exiſt in a Chriſtian Country.---Many Families had for ſome time ſubſiſted on Bran and Bullock's Blood mixed together, and ſome, for Want of Bran ſufficient, added a little Saw-duſt to their ſcanty Pittance, and it was thought, that had it not been for this timely Viſit, many Scores would literally have periſhed for Want, as the induſtrious Poor were unemployed, owing to all the Ships being laden, and prevented by contrary Winds from proceeding on their reſpective Voyages.

Theſe Diſtreſſes have occaſioned ſeveral Mobs and Riots.---At Chelmsford about 50 aſſembled in the Evening of the 12th of April, and increaſed to 300 by Morning, when they went to ſeveral Mills, and took large Quantities of Flour, and carried it in Waggons, under a ſtrong Guard, to the Market-place, to ſell at a Price approved of--They then went to the Farmers Houſes, regaling themſelves, and collecting Grain from them to carry to the Market. The ſame is done at Sudbury, Colcheſter, Whiteham, &c.--The Inhabitants were in ſuch great Conſternation, that they had ſent to the War-Office for Troops to quell the Rioters.

By Captain FARRELL, arrived at New-York, in ſeven Weeks from Falmouth, we have the following Advices, viz.

CRACOW, April 8.

THE Confederates are ſtill maſters of the Citadel, but Proviſions are become ſo ſcarce now, that they are obliged to kill their horſes, which the Officers eat, ſeemingly with great appetite, but the Soldiers with great reluctance, which is the more unhappy, as they are reduced to half a pound of bread per day; however, the deſerters ſay that it is impoſſible to hold out much longer. Col. Suhak, who intended to ſurprize the garriſon of Weiſzanic, was prevented by a detachment of Ruſſian troops; 18 were taken priſoners, and about 200 killed and wounded; they had but one ſmall cannon, a three pounder, which they left behind them.

Peterſburgh, March 22. The courier, diſpatched from hence five weeks ſince, is returned, and brings the important intelligence, that the Porte has acceded, with the greateſt earneſtneſs, to an Armiſtice, and to the holding a congreſs. And we have the greateſt reaſon to hope for the eſtabliſhment of a laſting peace, under the mediation of the Courts of Vienna and Berlin, who both act with the moſt laudable vigour, to bring this deſirable event to a concluſion.

Vienna, April 17. This moment arrived the poſt from Copenhagen, and we can aſſure you, that the divorce of the King from his Queen has been declared. She is to be ſtiled Princeſs of Aalburgh, and is not to bear the King's arms.

Stockholm, April 7. His Majeſty has this day been pleaſed to fix on the 29th of May for his coronation, and to accept the oaths of allegiance on the firſt of June.

LONDON, April 25.

All defence of the Queen of Denmark, on the charge of adultery, is totally given up; but that is the leaſt criminal part of her conduct. The laſt expreſs is ſaid to have brought an account, that ſhe is divorced from the King her huſband, and that ſhe will be delivered up to the Engliſh Ambaſſador, who has inſtructions to convey her to Hanover.

A few days ago the King dictated to Lord Rochford the words of a letter to Lord Townſhend, cenſuring that Lord's conduct in Ireland. The orthography, and paſſages relating to the military, were afterwards corrected by General Harvey.

Of forty-two commiſſions in the army, lately ſent over by Lord Townſhend, only five were returned, ſigned by the King. The reſt were rejected.

It is aſſerted that certain advices have been received from France, that the report of the Pretender's marriage with the Princeſs of Stolberg, is entirely deſtitute of truth.

Extract of a letter from Copenhagen, April 11.

"On the 9th Sir Robert Keith went to Cronenburgh, and had a conference with her Majeſty the Queen Carolina Matilda, and returned again yeſterday; ſince which, it is ſaid, he is to return to London. The 10th came on before the Commiſſioners, the affairs of the ſtate priſoners, Counts Struenſee and Brandt; the pleaders were, for the King, the General Fiſcal Vivat; for the priſoners, the Counſellors Uldahl and Bang, but it was not ended that day. Counts Struenſee and Brandt have leave to make uſe of pen, ink, and paper, and to number their papers. The Queen's houſhold is now entirely ſettled, and the whole expence amounts to 40,000 dollars: Her whole Court conſiſts of 60 perſons. This day his Majeſty, accompanied by Prince Frederick, went in a ſtate coach to the New Holm, and ſaw two new 60 gun ſhips launched; one is called the Dannebrog, the other the Holſtein; his Majeſty and the Prince went afterwards and ſaw the machine for cleaning the harbour, and were highly pleaſed."

The Nabobs have formed a league together. They meet every night; they have ſubſcribed a million of money, to intimidate and corrupt. But nothing will do; the ſpirit of the nation is rouſed, and condign puniſhment will at length overtake the guilty.

The Ruſſians, extremely jealous of having his Pruſſian Majeſty their neighbour, have ſignified in form, that they cannot ſit down as idle ſpectators, ſhould he make any attempts for the appropriation of Dantzick and Royal Pruſſia.

Several gentlemen, members of the Houſe of Commons, who left town laſt week, declared that they would not attend at that houſe any more during the reign of the preſent miniſtry.

BOSTON, June 18.

The 5*th ult. the Brig Induſtry, Thomas Jackſon, arrived at Providence, from Surrinam, laſt from Halifax, which had been a miſſing Veſſel, having been from Surrinam* 108 Days.------On his Paſſage he had loſt his Rudder, and was obliged to ſteer with a Cable, and drifted into the Gulph Stream, and met with a continued Series of Storms and bad Weather till his arrival at Halifax, which was 76 Days.---The Captain and People underwent great Hardſhips.---He was relieved on the 1*ſt of May by Captain Knight, from Salem to Newfoundland, with Bread and Water, and afterwards got a Supply of Fiſh from a Fiſherman.*

June 22. Laſt Week Capt. Ebenezer Fuller arrived here from North Carolina, and informs, That he was late Maſter of a Schooner owned by John Simpſon, Eſq; of that Place; but that on his Paſſage thither from Jamaica, which he left the 29*th of October,* 1769, he met with contrary winds, and bad Weather, which forced him to bear away for La Vera Cruz, in the Bay of Mexico, where he arrived the 25*th of December following, being for ſeveral Days before ſo reduced, for want of Proviſion, that they were obliged to ſubſiſt on boiled Melaſſes and Sugar: That the next Day he, with his Mate and* 6 Men, were by Order of the Spaniſh Governor taken Priſoners, and confined on board by a Guard of 20 Soldiers, without the leaſt Cauſe given or committed by him, or any of his Crew:---That on the 1*ſt of January,* 1770, the Governor, attended by the Cuſtom-Houſe Officers, came on board ſaid Schooner, and threatened them with Death, if they did not deliver up the Keys of their Cheſts, &c. which they robbed of all that was valuable, and then gave ſtrict Charge to the Soldiers to keep them under Confinement, which was accordingly done until the 30*th of October following, when the Schooner ſunk by Neglect, the Worms having eat out her Bottom; they were then carried on board a Spaniſh Veſſel, and there confined till the* 7*th of January,* 1772, at which Time they were ordered to embark for the Havanna, and arrived there the 2*d of March following: At which Place he ſaw Captain Peter Beard, of Jamaica, and about* 50 Britiſh Seamen, in cloſe Confinement, with ſcarcely any Covering on their Backs; they told him their Living was hard, having but Half a Bit a Day allowed them to ſubſiſt on; and the only Proviſion they could get was Bullock's Lights, and bad Bread:----On the 28*th of March, Captain Fuller ſailed for North-Carolina, leaving Captain Beard and Company in Goal, in which ſome of them had been confined above* 18 Months: Captain Beard deſired he would publiſh his Caſe in the Papers, that the World might know how the Subjects of Great-Britain are treated by thoſe of his Catholic Majeſty.

NEWPORT, June 22.

Laſt Tueſday James Bud, and Lemuel Guſtine, were apprehended and committed to goal in this town, on ſuſpicion of being concerned in counterfeiting and paſſing New-York and Jerſey paper money. About a week before, they, with ſome others, came from Nantucket in a ſloop, and anchored in Mackarel Cove, a little within our light houſe, where theſe two left her, and came to this town, and agreed with an engraver to cut them a plate for the eſcutcheon or border of a New-York Forty Shilling bill, for which purpoſe they cut out the printed part of the bill, and gave the engraver the other part, cut into three or four pieces. But before the engraver had quite finiſhed the plate, he accidentally ſaw a New-York bill, which Bud had paſſed to another man, by which he diſcovered the real buſineſs he was about, and immediately informed Judge Hazard of the ſame. After Bud and Guſtine were examined, the ſloop was brought into this harbour, and being ſearched, upwards of Fifty Pounds of York and Jerſey money was found, including a ſmall ſum Bud and Guſtine had about them. They confeſſed but little on the examination: But it might be eaſily perceived that one Wills of Connecticut, one Smith of New-York, and a number of others, were concerned in this affair.

The money above mentioned conſiſts of Sixty, Twenty, Ten, and Five Shilling bills, principally of New-York currency, moſt of which are well known to be counterfeits; the Jerſey bills doubtful, and may probably be ſome of thoſe taken out of the treaſury when robbed. There is one Five Pound bill, not ſigned: The Forty Shilling bill, by which the plate was to have been made, is a true one.

By what could be drawn out of theſe men, there muſt be a very conſiderable amount of New-York bills counterfeited to the Weſtward; as Bud confeſſed that he ſaw a great number lying on Wills's table the firſt time he went to ſee him.

NEW-YORK, June 29.

Capt. William Lowndes, in the Sloop Heſter, in 16 Days from St. Croix, brings the following Account, viz. On the 17th of June, in Lat. 34: 48, Long. 72, ſpoke a Brig from Philadelphia, bound for Jamaica, out 4 Days from the Capes, but did not learn the Captain's Name; the next day, Lat. 33: 48, Long. 72: 30, ſpoke the Schooner Rebecca, a Whaler, John Kindrick, Maſter, 11 Weeks from off Vera Cruz, bound to Martha's Vineyard, who informed Capt. Lowndes, that he had taken 13 ſmall Spermaceti Whales, in the Bottom of the Bay of Mexico, from which he had only made 120 Barrels of Oyl, but found the Whales to be very plenty there; and being very ſhort of Proviſions, he was obliged to quit his Station, and turning to Windward, off Cape St. Anthony he fell in Company with upwards of 30 Sail of Veſſels, moſtly Europeans, from which he got little Relief; and that on the 8th of May, the Brig Minerva, bound to London, William Burk, Maſter, and Capt. Davis, in the Ship Marquis of Granby, together with a Schooner for Providence, Capt. Chambers, all from the Bay of Honduras, being becalmed off Swan's Iſland, went aſhore in their Boats, with a View of getting ſome freſh Prog, but the Current running very rapid, and a Guſt ariſing, ſoon drove the Veſſels from the adjacent Shore; the next Day they reached the Iſland again, when the Remainder of the Crews went on Shore, in Search of their Captains and Ship-Mates, but to their great Surprize found only a few Turtle turned, and two Powder Horns, which they brought on board, and ſet ſail immediately for Rattan, in Queſt of the ſaid Maſters and People there, but having no Intelligence of them, they entered a Proteſt, and proceeded upon their Paſſage for Europe, the Schooner only excepted, which returned for the Bay of Honduras, who was ſo unfortunate as to have the Captain's Wife on board; and that the ſaid John Kindrick further ſaid, that off the Bay of Hunda, he received on board from the Minerva, John Burk, Son to the ſaid William Burk, whom he propoſed to put on Shore at Rhode-Iſland, as the Brig properly belonged to Aaron Lopus there, &c. On the 12th of May, Capt. Kindrick went on board a Spaniſh Guarda Coſta, a Snow of 12 Carriage Guns, Capt. Don Toriss Franciſco, from Port Mahon, who ſupplied him with a hundred Weight of Bread, and other little Neceſſaries, which was very ſmall for 13 People. The next Morning Captain Kindrick ſaw the ſaid Snow aſhore off the Coxcombs, with her Top Gallant Sails clewed up, and the reſt of the Sails hoiſted a-tanto; he ſaw the People very expeditious in getting on Shore, as the Veſſel ſoon went to Pieces when the Sea Breeze ſet in. Capt. Kindrick likewiſe ſaid, that he and his People had been at very ſhort Allowance for many Weeks, but had got ſufficient Relief of Bread and Water, and were entirely out of ſalt Proviſions, with which Capt. Lowndes ſupplied him.

The 20th Inſtant, arrived the Schooner Thomas, Capt. Gilbert, in 35 Days from Hiſpaniola, who, on the Paſſage, the 31ſt of May, Lat. 22, Long. 74, met with a Sloop loaded with Lumber, full of Water, without any Perſon on board. Capt. Gilbert ſaw at the Mole the Captain of this Sloop, and underſtood that ſhe belonged to Virginia, had lately ſailed from New-York, and was caſt away on the Plate-Wreck Rocks, where the People left her; but the Sea had driven her off from the Rocks.

Wedneſday laſt Capt. Braſs arrived here in 7 Weeks from the Bay of Honduras, who, on the 20th Inſtant, in Lat. 38, 30, Long. 71, ſaw a New-England built Sloop Bottom up, with the Maſt and Bowſprit along Side, both of which appeared to be newly ſcraped. The 17th Inſtant, in Lat. 36: 16, Long. 70, Capt. Braſs ſpoke with the Ship Elizabeth, Capt. Bradford, from Briſtol for Maryland, 7 Weeks and 3 Days out; and on the 19th with the Brig Franklin, Capt. Lyell, from Amboy for Madeira, out 48 Hours.

The Brig Sally, Capt. Hunter, was to ſail from the Bay for Philadelphia, about 3 Weeks after Capt. Braſs.

Capt. Farrell left Falmouth the 4th of May, and ſays the Mercury Packet, Capt. Dillon, was to ſail with the Mail for this Place the Sunday following. The 22d Inſtant, in Lat. 29: 21, Long. 69, Capt. Farrell ſpoke with Capt. Croſby, from Yarmouth for Philadelphia, 9 Weeks out; and the next Day with a Brig from Rhode-Iſland for Surrinam, with Hay on Deck.

Capt. Smith, in 36 Days from Kingſton in Jamaica, acquaints us, that Capt. Aldborough, in a Philadelphia Ship, ſailed in Company with him for the Bay of Honduras, and that Capt. Walker, in a Brig of this Port, ſailed from Jamaica for the Bay alſo.

We learn from South Haven, in Suffolk County, on Long-Iſland, That about 4 o'clock laſt Monday Afternoon, Samuel Brewſter, Eſq; of that Place, being in the Woods with one of his Negroes, attempted to correct him for ſome Miſdemeanor, which the Negroe reſented, and wounded his Maſter, by giving him ſeveral ſuch violent Blows on his Head, with a Billet of Wood, that he expired the next Morning, firſt relating the Matter as above mentioned. The Negroe was tried the next Day, and being found guilty of the Murder of Mr. Brewſter, was to be executed laſt Friday.

THE Loſs the Scheme, for promoting The CULTURE of SILK, ſuſtained laſt Year, by buying unkilled for killed Cocoons, and giving the ſame Price thro' the Seaſon, rendered it neceſſary for the Managers to endeavour to come at ſome more equitable Manner of purchaſing, than they had hitherto been in the Practice of. Experience taught them that Cocoons, where Worms or Grubs are perfectly killed, are much lighter than before; and afterwards, if they are kept in a dry Place, as they ought to be, they will diminiſh in Weight from Week to Week, till they are reduced to near one Third of their original Weight. Nevertheleſs the only uſeful Part, to wit, the Thread of Silk, is equally long and heavy, in theſe different Degrees of Dryneſs. Theſe Reaſons induced them to offer the following Prices, namely, for all merchantable Cocoons, brought to the Filature before the 15th of July, 3s. per Pound; from the 15th to the 25th, 3s. 6d. from the 25th to the 5th of Auguſt, 4s. from the 5th to the 25th, 4s. 6d. and from thence to the End of the Seaſon, 5s. but if extraordinary good, and very dry, 5s. 6d. provided they are all of the firſt Crop.
